About AADB

The American Association of Dental Boards is a national association that encourages the highest standards of dental education. The AADB promotes higher and uniform standards of qualification for dental practitioners. Membership is comprised of boards of dentistry, advanced education boards, present and past members of those boards, board administrators, board attorneys, educators, and oral health stakeholders.

Our Mission

To serve as a resource by providing a national forum for exchange, development, and dissemination of information to assist dental regulatory boards with their commitment to protect the public.

About AADB's Meeting

The AADB Meeting provides an excellent forum for keeping up to date with state board concerns. Programs are designed to allow opportunities for interaction among all participants, including board members, dentists, therapists, dental hygienists, assistants, educators, board attorneys, and dental specialty associations. Participants take away valuable information on current issues and all aspects of dental regulation.

Bobby White
Chief Executive Officer and Legal Counsel, North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners

White currently serves as Chief Executive Officer and Legal Counsel for the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners in Morrisville, NC, a position he has held for over 17 years. Prior to his work at the Dental Board, he served as deputy counsel of the North Carolina State Bar where he mediated disputes between lawyers and clients and prosecuted lawyers for misconduct. White previously served on the AADB Board of Directors.

Robert B. Zena, DMD
AADB President

He has assumed the roles of clinician, educator, consultant, researcher, author, lecturer, editor, inventor, and most of all, leader. As a graduate from the University of Kentucky's College of Dentistry, he practiced for seven years as a general dentist. He then gained more education by a residency in the Postgraduate Prosthodontics Program at the University of Louisville's School of Dentistry. Actively working in private practice as a Prosthodontist, He also taught part-time in the postgraduate programs at U of L. During his 32 years of practice he has been involved in many diverse roles. He consults as an opinion leader for several major dental companies, while assisting them with marketing and product development. His expertise in dental ceramics and color led to the development of Light Dynamics. He also lectured extensively on Cad/Cam technology. Lecturing internationally, he gained many relationships with dental leaders both clinical and corporate, around the world. He was chief editor of Dental labor journal, and on the editorial board of several other journals and executive advisor to the Palmeri Publishing group. He also co-authored one text book, Implant Prosthodontics. He has published numerous articles over the years and involved in dental research. He has patents on several products. Still actively practicing prosthodontics as a specialist, he now is president of the American Association of Dental Boards. Before his election to head this important organization he was President of the Kentucky Board of Dentistry. As president of the AADB he has transitioned the 137 year old organization to new heights both influential and financial. The economic stability has more than tripled with new policies and revenue streams created by his vision. Their latest development of continuing education accreditation is a culmination of five years of his leadership and creativity.

The ACE Program is a service of the AADB to assist dental boards in identifying quality continuing education courses to help protect the public. ACE accreditation may not be accepted by particular boards of dentistry. Questions or comments can be directed to the AADB at info@dentalboards.org.

The American Association of Dental Boards is an ADA CERP Recognized Provider. ADA CERP is a service of the American Dental Association to assist dental professionals in identifying quality providers of continuing dental education. ADA CERP does not approve or endorse individual courses or instructors, nor does it imply acceptance of credit hours by boards of dentistry. The American Association of Dental Boards designates this activity for 8.25 continuing education credits. Concerns or complaints about a CE provider may be directed to the provider or to ADA CERP at www.ada.org/cerp.

Our Sponsors

The AADB Board of Directors would like to thank the Dental Assisting National Board, Inc. for their sponsorship of the 2021 AADB Annual Meeting. DANB has been a long-term supporter of the AADB meetings.

Dental Assisting National Board, Inc.
Measuring Dental Assisting Excellence®

Additionally, the 32nd Edition of the Composite has been made possible through a generous contribution from the American Dental Education Association.

This publication contains 40 charts that provide state-by-state information on dental board structure, licensee populations, licensing requirements, practice regulations, and state board disciplinary actions. Each Agency Member State Board and all Member Specialty Boards should have received a complimentary electronic copy of the Composite as part of their membership package.

The AADB Board of Directors is also appreciative of our Mid-Year 2022 sponsors:
