

BYLAWS
OF THE
AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF DENTAL BOARDS

PREAMBLE

We, the members of the American Association of Dental Boards, in conformity with the Charter granted September the 10th, 1896, at Washington, D.C., and renewed in 1944, and in order to encourage the highest standards of dental education, and to promote a higher and more uniform standard of qualifications for dental practitioners and uniformity of methods in the conduct, operation and workings of the dental examining boards, and uniformity in the legislation in the several states, do ordain and establish these Bylaws, for the government of the American Association of Dental Boards.

Section 1 – Name

The name of this organization shall be the American Association of Dental Boards, hereinafter referred to as "the Association" or "this Association."

Section 2 - Central Office

The registered office of this Association shall be known as the Central Office and shall be located in such city as shall be determined by the Board of Directors. Branch offices of this Association may be established in such localities and at such times as are deemed necessary by the Board of Directors.

Section 3 - Definition of Terms

In these Bylaws, terms within the dental professional regulatory community are defined as follows:

“Agency”: a licensing jurisdiction: a state, a territory, or the District of Columbia of the United States of America which is given jurisdiction over the regulation of business activities within its borders including the authority for licensing, registering and regulating the professional conduct of dentists, dental hygienists and other dental personnel. The term “agency” is also meant to include any entity outside of the United States of America which has similar authority for licensure and regulation and which may contract with the AADB for consultation services or for other purposes.

“Associate Agency”: a specialty board recognized by the American Dental Association; a regional organization comprised of two or more Member Agencies; or an agency whose purpose is to certify dental auxiliaries in dentistry.

“Dental Board”: any collective body of dentists and others, such as public members or other dental personnel, which serves as the licensing and regulatory authority for dental personnel within a licensing jurisdiction. These collective bodies of dentists and others are variously referred to as boards of dentistry, boards of dental hygiene, boards of dental examiners, or by other designations by licensing jurisdictions and the term “dental board” encompasses these various designations.

“Member-Governed Organization”: an organization in which the members have the ultimate authority over the operation of the organization. A member-governed organization is one that holds regular annual meetings of its members, has its activities governed by the membership through an elected Board of Directors, and has delegated certain powers to its Board of Directors.

“Dental Board Member”: a dentist, a dental hygienist or public member who has been appointed or elected to serve on a licensure or regulatory body empowered to regulate the dental profession within a licensing jurisdiction.

Section 4 - Objectives

The objectives of this Association shall be:

To promote the undergraduate and continuing education of dentists and the auxiliary groups who have as their purpose, optimum oral health care as an aid to the health and welfare of the public.

To assist all Agencies in continually improving methods of testing and evaluating candidates for licensure, insuring the level of oral health care standards will be constantly and uniformly raised.

To encourage further study and discussion of the needs and problems of dental education and licensure.

To provide counsel and guidance to Agencies in amending, revising, and enforcing the dental practice acts of each state in the interest of the public welfare.

Section 5 – Membership

Section 5.1: The AADB shall be a Member-Governed organization in accordance with Section 29-401.50 of the District of Columbia Official Code.

Section 5.2: The Association is composed of members and participants: Members and Life Members, Associate Members and Associate Life Members, Agencies and Associate Agencies. Application for membership shall be submitted to AADB for consideration and approval by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.

Section 5.3: Governing members are the Members and Life Members of AADB and may vote and hold office. Agencies are “participating” organizations which have access to the programs and services of the organization.
